The following lines should not become headings at all.

Stay awhile.

The river runs.

A note about the most important consideration of all.

- first bullet;
- second bullet;

The following paragraph stands alone.

> This line is indented like a quotation.

This bold sentence is not a heading.

The paragraph continues here and then No way this becomes a heading at all and the text moves on.