Colon and Question Study

1. What is measured:

The recorder logs every event in the workshop.

The first column begins the thought and the second column completes it.

2. Why does it matter?

The question drives the design of the study.

3. How is it decided?

The decision follows from the measured evidence.